JURISDICTION

11. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction of this civil action on the basis that the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, and there is diversity of citizenship between the parties pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332.

12. Defendant Hansen had contacts with the State of Alabama and derived revenue from the State of Alabama and was doing business in Alabama by operating their truck in Alabama at the time of this crash.

13. Defendant Asmat had contacts with the State of Alabama and derived revenue from the State of Alabama and was doing business in Alabama by operating their truck in Alabama at the time of this crash.

14. Defendant Takelu had contacts with the State of Alabama and derived revenue from the State of Alabama and was doing business in Alabama by operating the Asmat truck in Alabama at the time of this crash.

Statement of the Facts

15. On June 19, 2021, Plaintiff, Candice Gulley, was driving a 2017 Ford Transit van on behalf of the Alabama Sheriff's Girls Ranch ("Ranch van”) north on Interstate 65 near Greenville in Butler County, Alabama. The Ranch van was occupied by passengers I.G., B.G., M.B., D.N., H.M.L., and A.N.M., all children under the age of nineteen years.

16. Ms. Gulley and all of the children were properly wearing their seatbelt restraint systems at the time of the crash.

17. Just prior to the crash, the Ranch van was traveling in the left lane alongside a 2020 Volvo Truck tractor/trailer combination owned and operated by Defendant Hansen traveling north in the righthand (outside) lane.

18. The Ranch van was in the left lane adjacent to the trailer portion of the Hansen Volvo 18-wheeler.

19. Behind the Hansen truck and the Ranch van was the 18-wheeler operated by Mamuye Takelu who was employed by Asmat. At all times material, Defendant Takelu was operating the 18-wheeler under the authority of Asmat and under Asmat’s DOT number.

20. As the vehicles approached a bridge on Interstate 65 over Pigeon Creek Road near milepost 138, traffic north of the bridge had slowed and stopped forming a que due to a series of minor crashes.

21. The Hansen truck failed to stop for the traffic and struck a 2020 Ford Explorer SUV and then veered into the left lane striking the Ranch van occupied by Ms. Gulley, I.G., B.G., M.B., D.N., H.M.L., and A.N.M., and others.

22. After being struck by the Hansen truck, the Ranch van was struck by the Asmat/Takelu 18-wheeler from the rear.

23. A fire erupted during the collision which ultimately consumed the Ranch van, the 18-wheelers and other vehicles, as well as the children in the Ranch van.

24. Ms. Gulley was pulled from the Ranch van wreckage by bystanders. She then ran around the Ranch van to try to help the children escape the burning van. Because of the fire and the significant damage caused to the Ranch van by the Hansen and Asmat trucks, she was unable to extricate any of the children.

25. All the children were killed by the fire.

COUNT ONE
(Negligence)

26. Plaintiffs reallege all allegations contained in paragraphs 1 - 25 of the Complaint as if set out here in full.

27. Defendant Hansen's agent and driver, negligently operated his vehicle by failing to comply with the Alabama Rules of the Road.

28. Defendant Hansen's driver negligently operated his vehicle by failing to maintain his vehicle at a safe operating speed.

29. Defendant Hansen's driver negligently operated his vehicle by failing to keep a proper lookout.

30. Defendant Hansen's driver negligently operated his vehicle by being distracted and not paying proper attention.

31. Defendant Hansen's driver was driving the 18-wheeler too fast for the conditions at the time.

32. Defendant Hansen's driver negligently failed to comply with Code of Alabama § 32-5A-88 and § 32-5A-170.

33. Defendant Hansen's driver violated other numerous rules and regulations yet to be discovered in the course of this case.

34. The Hansen vehicle was not, but should have been, equipped with computer aided technologies (CTA) such as automatic braking systems, warning systems, and other avoidance systems.

35. The Hansen vehicle was not properly maintained in a safe working condition.

36. At all times material Candice Gulley was within the zone of danger and suffered the horrible experience of helplessly knowing her children and the other children were burning to death inside the Ranch van.

37. As a proximate consequence of the negligent acts and omissions described herein, the minor children were wrongfully killed and Candice Gulley received personal injuries including but not limited to severe scalp injuries, bruising, burns, pain, severe emotional and mental distress, permanent injuries and disfigurement.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Candice Gulley claims compensatory damages for her personal injury and damages for the wrongful death of the minor children in the amount the jury may award plus the cost of this action.
